Jackspin's First Time Filming a Movie

By Asahna Aaliyah Reid

2nd grade

Once upon a time there was a person that lived in the woods. He always had a camera in his hand. His name was Jackspin. He loved cameras. When he was a little boy, he dreamed about being a videographer because he loved cameras so much. When he was getting older, he met a girl named Isabela. She was his girlfriend and then they got married. They were playing together then a few hours later he found out she was the evil witch and not Isabela. He tried to run away, but she trapped him inside a bubble. The bubble brought Jackspin to the castle where he saw the real Isabela in the dungeon. While he was in the dungeon he looked up and saw a key. On the wall, there was a ladder. He wanted to use it. Isabela climbed up the ladder while Jackspin held the ladder for her. She reached the key and then climbed down. Isabela gave the key to Jackspin. Jackspin put his hand in between the bars and was able to put the key in the lock and open the door. They tiptoed out. They saw a big obstacle course. They had to walk on a rope, roll in a tire, and had to make the bodyguards laugh. They made the bodyguards laugh by telling them a super funny joke. They made it through. They had to pass the evil witch but the evil witch caught them again and put them in a super strong bubble. They were so sad. They just wanted to have a normal life. Many weeks later, a superhero called Headen Flashon had a battle with the evil witch. Headen Flashon won the battle. Isabela and Jackspin left and went home. Since this happened, Jackspin never thought of his dreams again. One day someone was looking for a new videographer to film the movie "Dinosaur Flash 3". He volunteered. They picked Jackspin and he was so happy that he had to celebrate. He invited all his friends to see the movie he filmed. His friends thought it was amazing! They all said, "Congratulations for being picked to be a videographer!". Jackspin enjoyed filming it and some of the actors and actresses became his friends. They lived happily ever after.

Build Builds

Hello, my name is Roxy. I am a boy dog and my color fur is brown and white. I am a small dog. I might be small for a really big builder, but I accidentally couldn't make the building because I am a small dog. Then Roxy calls for a crew for some help! The crew is very good at building things! Roxy and his crew loved it! They went home and they went outside with Roxy, but Roxy called for their help again because he accidentally broke the building again. Then they rebuilt it! This time they loved it even more! The End.

A Day in the Life of an Ancient Egyptian Cat

Hello! My name is Cleo, short for Cleopatra. I live in Egypt, right next to the Nile River. I love hunting any pests and rodents that come into our home. My owner does NOT like pests or rodents in our home. Us cats are the best pets (or at least I think so) because we are treated like the Gods! We hunt the creatures that are NOT very nice (trust me, you do NOT want to talk to those snakes, they talk forever, just to try and bite you!) and in return, I get treated like the queen of the world! And the best part is, you don't have to worry about your owner or someone else hurting you, because they would get punished. I made good friends with the other cats on the edge of the Nile (sometimes, I think that that one cat, you know, the one with the super sparkly collar that you have always wanted since you lived here is Bastet, the cat goddess.) But anyway, everyone loves you and when I stretch out in the sun for a good long catnap, I get associated with with the God of the sun, Ra. Ra's daughter is Bastet, just so you know. And since you might be wondering all about my glorious name, Cleopatra, she was a pharaoh, the ruler of Egypt. Anyway, I think it is time for my catnap in the sun, getting out a nice stretch... see you soon!
